

Participation in the wrong qualification group leads to cancellation of all qualification results.

The total fastest lap determines the starting position for the first race. The second total fastest lap determines the starting position for the second race. The qualification group with the total fastest lap times starts in the row of pole position. The other qualification group starts in row behind starting place 2.

If a qualified participants will not take place in the race, his starting- place in the grid stays free.

All official changes, being sporting, technical or technical rules or in attachments, will be posted on www.necup.com throughout the 2013 season.
